LOCAL ITEMS.

FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 18, 1867.

Death of an Estimable Citizen.

We were pained to hear of the decease of Mr. SAMUEL G. FAIR, an influential and highly esteemed citizen of this District, at his house on Thursday last, from a stroke of apoplexy. Our sincere sympathies are with his bereaved family, in this hour of affliction, and we hope, too, that the community has met with the loss of one of its most worthy and valuable members.

Outrageous Robbery.

On last Saturday night six freedmen, laborers on the plantation of Mr. Russell Zimmerman, concocted a plan for robbing the store of Mr. T. E. Rickenbaker in this District. They proceeded thither, and called upon Mr. S. E. Rickenbaker as Mr. T. E. R. his son was absent. The store was formerly a gin house, and had a partition dividing off the room for storing vinegar, molasses, &c., from the rest of the store. The darkeys inquired for syrup, and upon Mr. R.'s going into the small room for the purpose of drawing it, they managed to steal a quantity of bacon, pairs of shoes, and other articles. Upon his return with the syrup, Mr. S. E. R. did not, owing to the dim light, observe that these articles were abstracted; and the theft was not discovered until Monday morning, when Mr. T. E. R., upon opening the store, observed it immediately. Suspicion at once settled upon those parties, and the father and son proceeded to Mr. Zimmerman's, searched the houses of these freedmen, and found many of the stolen articles, which they took from the negroes, and started on their return; but were waylaid on the road by the same freedmen, with some others, and again robbed of the articles they had recovered, they being unarmed, and the freedmen attacking them with weapons.

Not satisfied with this, these desperadoes actually proceeded to Mr. Rickenbaker's place, and with arms in their hands, and the assertion that there were a hundred men in the swamp nearby, at their call, they would have proceeded to further acts of lawlessness; but on this occasion, they carried matters a step too far.

Messrs. R., with their neighbors and friends, who happened to be at hand, after a show of resistance from the freedmen, arrested them, and they were brought here, and confined in jail.

But this is not all. On Wednesday afternoon, the villains broke jail, with all the rest of the prisoners there confined, and they are now at large for further mischief.

Notice.

A small amount of corn has been sent to me for distribution among the destitute freedmen. I would respectfully request the planters of the District to enquire into all cases of extreme destitution among the colored people, and report the same to me, well authenticated, or to the Committee, which will be appointed to decide upon applications. Certificates or other satisfactory evidence will be required in each case. An early response is requested.

W. W. LEGARE,
 Orangeburg C. H., May 17, 1867.

We acknowledge the receipt of a bottle of fine old Brandy from the establishment of Mr. JOSEPH LABREY, under Trendwell's Hotel, and for which he will please accept our thanks.

Ice Cream.

We return the thanks of the ORANGEBURG NEWS to James Dunmore, Proprietor of the Ice Cream Saloon, at the rear of Mr. Doyle's lot, at the Corner of St. John's and — Streets, for a chum of delightful Cream. Dunmore's Saloon is fitted up with much taste, and his Ice Cream is of excellent flavor, and is exceedingly refreshing in the warm days of this season of the year. He will be prepared to supply customers with this delightful article of refreshment every afternoon and night, through the Summer. We bespeak for his Saloon the patronage of the public.

Escape of Prisoners.

On Wednesday afternoon last ten prisoners broke out of the jail at this place, by wrenching the hinges from the doors, bursting the locks, and jumping the fence of the jail lot. The Deputy Sheriff had been at the jail just about a half hour before, and had left for the purpose of getting his own dinner, when the prisoners, in an incredibly short space of time, broke out, and made off with such rapidity, that the river swamp was reached by them before pursuit could be instituted. Fortunately, the three most desperate of the criminals were carried to Columbia to the Penitentiary on Monday last; and the burglar Nelson is still at Columbia, not having yet been returned to this district for a new trial.
